MEMORANDUM: CLIENT INTERVIEW NOTES

Privileged and confidential: attorney work product (fictional)

Interviewee:	Laura Byrne (daughter; agent under power of attorney)
Date:	July 2, 2025
Interviewer:	Ruth A. Brennan
Also present:	None

1. Mom hired Dana Pruitt in late March from a flyer at the pharmacy. Agreed rate $24/hour, Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, about 4 hours a visit. Dana said she runs a small company, DP Companion Care.

2. Mom's memory has been slipping since last fall. She can still talk about the past clearly but loses track of bills.

3. In April Dana "set up Mom's phone" and "helped with online banking". Mom has never used online banking herself. Mom's number is the landline, (319) 555-0127. Dana's cell is (319) 555-0188.

4. Mom had a $50,000 CD at Larkspur that came due in April. She had planned to roll it over. When I asked in July, she said Dana told her the money was going into "something better". Mom does not remember signing anything for a wire and says she never lent Dana or her company money.

5. Larkspur called Mom on May 29 about an overdraft; Mom called me. That is how we found out.

6. When I asked Dana for Mom's statements she emailed me a copy of April on June 24 (Exhibit 5). It looked normal to me.

7. Dana started driving a new SUV in mid-April. She told my brother she got "a great deal".

8. Mom has never gambled as far as any of us know. Lucky Star Casino is about 45 minutes away and Mom no longer drives.

9. Mom kept her checkbook in the kitchen drawer. We found checks 2045 and 2046 missing from the book, with no entries in the register.

Follow-up

Subpoena records for DP Companion Care LLC and Dana Pruitt. Request Larkspur's wire file, check images and the record of contact changes on Mom's account. Ask Laura for any invoices from DP Companion Care (she found one, Exhibit D).
